

Press Release:

League of Women Voters Candidates Forum

- 3rd Congressional District
- 14th Middlesex District State Representative

Because Congresswoman Niki Tsongas and Representative Cory Atkins are not seeking reelection, these are two very exciting races.

Monday, July 23, 7-9 p.m., Harvey Wheeler Center

1276 Main Street, Concord

For Immediate Release: The League of Women Voters of Concord-Carlisle (LWVCC) and League of Women Voters of Acton Area (LWVAA) will hold a Candidates Forum for the 3rd Congressional District and the 14th Middlesex State District. LWVCC and LWVAA have invited all candidates whose name will appear on the September 4 ballots.

The forum will be held at the Harvey Wheeler Community Center, 1276 Main Street, Concord on the evening of Monday, July 23, 2018, from 7-9 p.m. We plan to record the program for airing on Acton TV.

The 14th Middlesex House forum will start at 7 PM, followed by the 3rd Congressional District forum at 7:45 PM.

The 3rd Congressional District Representative represents residents of Middlesex, Worcester and Essex Counties in the U. S. Congress. The 14th Middlesex District includes of the Towns of Concord, Carlisle, Acton and Chelmsford and the representative serves in the Massachusetts House of Representative.

The League of Women Voters is eager to help voters learn more about the candidates running in the September Primary Election and provide a non-partisan forum for all candidates to be heard. The event is part of our mission to encourage the active and informed participation of all citizens in government and the electoral process. The forum is free and open to the public.
