"I Hiked Acton's Trails !"

Walk all of Acton's Conservation Lands in the list, and earn a sticker or a patch!

How to participate

1. Download/print out the "I hiked Acton's Trails!" program form from the Acton Recreation Department website <http://www.acton-ma.gov/index.aspx?nid=304> or pick one up at the Recreation Department office located at Acton Town Hall, 472 Main Street, Acton. Questions? Please call Acton Recreation 978-929-6640.
2. Please use good trail ethics for this walking program. Plan ahead and prepare; dispose of waste properly; leave what you find; respect wildlife; and be considerate of others.
3. Review the Acton Conservation Land Regulations <http://actontrails.org/RegulationsRev.htm>
4. Hike the yellow main loop trail of each of the 16 conservation lands listed on the Participation Form. Be sure to download a map first here <http://www.actontrails.org/CasM.htm> . Paper maps are stocked in map boxes at information kiosks at most conservation land parking areas (marked K on maps).
5. When your form is complete, mail it to Acton Recreation Department, Acton Town Hall, 472 Main Street, Acton MA 01720. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope and we will mail you a sticker and/or a sew-on patch. OR bring your form into the Recreation Department at Acton Town Hall and get your sticker and/or patch.
6. Before going out on a hike, always tell someone where you are going. Have fun and be safe!
